

TRAINING ON BAMBOO AT CHINA

As nominated by the Director General, ICFRE, Dehradun, two Scientists and one Research Officer, namely Dr. Amita Pandey, Scientist B, IWST, Bangalore, Dr. R. K. Meena, Scientist B, ARCBR, Aizwal, Mizoram and Dr. T. C. Bhuyan, Research Officer, RFRI, Jorhat have been undergoing training under programme “2012-Technology Training course on Bamboo Cultivation, Processing and Utilization for Developing countries” from 18th June to 14th August, 2012 at China National Bamboo Research Centre (CBRC) at Hangzhou, China. The training is entirely being sponsored by Chinese Government. The trainees are being trained in the State-of-the-art Training Centre of CBRC in China along with other participants from different third world countries including Pakistan, Bangladesh, Costa Rica, Ghana, Nigeria, Uruguay, Thailand, Kenya etc. As a part of the training programme, the participants were given exposures on various aspects of Bamboo Development including Past and Present conditions of Bamboo industry in China, World Bamboo Development, Bamboo Recycling Economy, Sympodial bamboo harvesting and practices etc. Extensive field visits were also conducted to various important places such as Nanjing Forestry University, Nanjing, Linan & Anji Bamboo Counties, Shanghai etc. The team is expected to return to India on 16th August, 2012 after successful completion of the training.

From left to right:

- Dr. R. K. Meena
- Dr. Amita Pandey
- Dr. T. C. Bhuyan

ICFRE Participants with other country
participants

